Easily get the content you need working for you

You need content. We can help with that.

TOPYX LMS partners with Vado to make sure you have the content you need to quickly have your learning and Development program working for you.

New to Vado?

They are known as an eLearning content provider specializing in bite sized mobile learning. Their content is designed to be enjoyed on all devices by delivering professional, short videos to help engage the learner. You can learn more about how Vado does what they do at <http://vadoinc.net/>.

Research shows that 70% of development happens on the job, and Vado is the only off the shelf eLearning courseware provider that helps the learner apply on the job through step by step instructions.

Short bite sized learning content – learners want short learning courses. Vado's learning content takes this trend to the next step to meet the demands of learners. From a learner experience perspective, small bite sized videos fit the mobile learners' requirement of not having to watch long videos on their hand held device.

Vado is a Project Management Institute (PMI) Registered Education Provider (R.E.P.)
